Executive Proclamation
State of South Dakota
Office of the Governor

Whereas, Sergeant First Class David L. Burr's dedication to service has made him a valuable asset to this state and country; and,

Whereas, We have very few occasions to recognize the patriotic individuals for their service to this state and country; and,

Whereas, Sergeant First Class Burr has devoted more than 28 years of his life to the service of this state and country as a leader of soldiers, dedicating himself to the assistance of soldiers as the Human Resource Specialist NCO, with many years of support to the Engineer Corp, Golden Coyote Exercises, and dedicating himself to service in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom; and,

Whereas, His loyalty and leadership have made him a cornerstone in the Armed Forces of this country; and,

Whereas, Sergeant First Class Burr continues to give of himself; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to commend Sergeant First Class David L. Burr for more than 28 years of dedicated and outstanding service to this state and country:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim September 25, 2010, as in South Dakota, and I join with his family and friends in wishing him well in his retirement and thanking him for his service to the state of South Dakota and to the United States of America.

SERGEANT FIRST CLASS DAVID L. BURR DAY

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Eighth Day of September in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Ten.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
